Investment Analyst Opening

We're hiring a Full-Time Investment Analyst at Bespoke AM (Remote).

Bespoke AM is building a next-generation investment firm—one that blends deep generalist talent with custom-built tools and long-horizon judgment.

We're looking for an Investment Analyst who thrives in a research-driven, cross-asset environment. This person will cover ~20–30 names in a high-conviction, low-turnover portfolio, explore global public and private opportunities, and help scale our tech-enabled decision-making engine.

BESPOKEGROUP.IO

What we're looking for:

- 3–5 years of public/private equity research experience
- Strong writing, modeling, and investment judgment
- Interest in global markets, emerging tech, and venture

What we offer:

- Remote-friendly setup (U.S. based)
- High-trust, low-ego team
- A chance to help shape something exceptional

How to apply:

Submit your resume and a short cover letter to careers@bespokegroup.io. We'll review applications on a rolling basis.
